Remembered on the Tree of Life

Then Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

John 20:27

Lectors - Group 2 will read next weekend,
 April 18, 2010.
 2010 Group lists are available in the Sacristy.

During the Easter season this year, we will read from the Book of Revelation as the second reading. Revelation uses apocalyptic language, rich in symbolism, to describe experiences of the early Christian community near the end of the first century. In a time of persecution and distress, hyperbole was used as a literary convention to express the difficulties seen by the author, as brother turned against brother in the face of pressure to turn from the faith. The language of apocalyptic writing—so popular in the first century—was used to convey the extreme circumstances in which the church found itself. While the selections chosen for the Easter season provide a vision of hope, it is good to recognize that the hope they convey comes out of a book written at a time when Christians found themselves under siege and threatened by Jewish leaders who were expelling them from the synagogues and Roman officials who were persecuting them as apostates.

And so, we begin today with a testimony from a man named John, incarcerated in a Roman penal colony, the island of Patmos. Biblical scholars tell us that this John is not the same person as the author of the fourth Gospel because the grammar and style of writing are so different. He may have been a disciple of John the Evangelist, or someone who was familiar with his work through the Johannine communities in Syria. In today's Gospel, Jesus appears to the disciples who had sequestered themselves behind closed doors out of fear. He comes to give them hope. Though by a different author, the Book of Revelation presents the same theme: Jesus appears in order to give hope, to remind the faithful that he lives—an Easter message for today as well.

PUBLIC WAY OF THE CROSS

Next year, St. Mary's Cathedral will be hosting the Public Way of the Cross for the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. This is a major event requiring a lot of organization and participation from all parish committees and organizations, as well as interested parishioners who might want to get involved and assist in planning with the various committees who will be participating. This is also an opportunity for all of us to work together for the success of this event. Next year, Good Friday falls on April 22, 2011.

THERE WILL BE A MEETING WHICH WILL BE HELD ON MONDAY MAY 10, 2010 AT 7:30 PM in the parish hall. At that time, a power point presentation prepared by the Archdiocese will be show detailing what is involved in preparing for the Public Way of the Cross as well as the history of this event in the Archdiocese. There will be an opportunity to ask questions and begin forming a committee. All interested parishioners are invited. More information will be in next weeks bulletin.

April 11 – 2nd Sunday of Easter

We all believe in the resurrection without seeing it. Our belief has grown, and is being nurtured in our community of faith. However, belief does not lead to belonging; it is actually the other way around. As good stewards we pray that our parish will always foster a sense of belonging; with arms wide open, welcoming every person. When people see, or feel that they belong... then we nurture their desire to grow in their belief!
