 Remembered on the Tree of Life

*Jesus said to his disciples: "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.
Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."
John 14:26-27a*

The old spiritual, "Twelve Gates to the City," takes the image of today's second reading from the Book of Revelation and celebrates it in song. The symbolism of a new Jerusalem, in which everyone is welcome, was first proclaimed by the prophet Isaiah. The author of the Book of Revelation reiterates this at the end of his apocalyptic vision. The spiritual builds on this theme, emphasizing, "Oh, what a beautiful city, hallelujah."

As the author of Revelation makes clear in today's selection, there is no temple or sun or moon in this new Jerusalem. The Lord is the temple and the glory of God is the city's light. This is God's dwelling among his people.

The Gospel of John for today makes the presence of the Lord even clearer. Jesus tells his disciples, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him" (John 14:23). Through baptism God dwells in us - an amazing truth that may escape us in the midst of daily life.

We want to be with God. We try to live our lives in such a way that we will come at last to the heavenly city, the new and eternal Jerusalem. And that end-of-life focus is good. We need to be prepared for our final day. But God already dwells among us, as Jesus told his disciples as they were gathered in the upper room for the Last Supper. The Lord is here in our midst, now. We are no longer only hoping for a final dwelling with God in heaven. If God is already dwelling in our midst, then every baptized person that stands before us is Christ. If that is the case, then we are no longer just being nice to someone because that is the polite thing to do. Instead, we are giving honor and glory to God by the respect we show.

PUBLIC WAY OF THE CROSS

Next year, St. Mary's Cathedral will be hosting the Public Way of the Cross for the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. This is a major event requiring a lot of organization and participation from all parish committees and organizations, as well as interested parishioners who might want to get involved and assist in planning with the various committees who will be participating. This is also an opportunity for all of us to work together for the success of this event. Next year, Good Friday falls on April 22, 2011.

THERE WILL BE A MEETING HELD ON MONDAY MAY 10, 2010 AT 7:30 PM in the parish hall.

At that time, a power point presentation prepared by the Archdiocese will be shown, detailing what is involved in preparing for the Public Way of the Cross as well as the history of this event in the Archdiocese. There will be an opportunity to ask questions and begin forming a committee. All interested parishioners are invited.

Stewardship - 6th Sunday of Easter

Jesus gives us the gift of peace. This gift can only be received in an intimate, personal relationship with the risen Christ. Peace offers another gift – confidence. There is a God-grounded confidence in knowing that Jesus calls us to ministry through the gift of our baptism. We are formed for ministry in our faith communities, and then we are sent to confidently share the good news by the example of our lives.
