TRINITY SUNDAY, May 30, 2010

9:30 am - Holy Mass

11:30 am - Holy Mass

The church cries out this day, "Come, Holy Spirit, come! Veni, Sancte Spiritus! ¡Ven, Dios Espíritu Santo!" In every language and dialect in the world, we beg that the Spirit of God may be poured out. We look to God's Spirit for refreshment, comfort, and peace.

The Pentecost mystery of many languages united by one Spirit didn't just happen in Jerusalem so many centuries ago. One of the great beauties of the church is that many languages, nationalities, and peoples are united Sunday after Sunday in a great prayer of thanksgiving to the God who gives us every good gift. It is the Spirit of Christ that makes us one, even as we pray that we "may be filled with his Holy Spirit, and become one body, one spirit in Christ" (Eucharistic Prayer 3). The very fact the church gathers in so many languages is a great sign of the unifying action of the Holy Spirit. We thank God for all the blessings poured out on us, each in our own tongue. And rather than it being a cacophony, the Spirit weaves our prayer together as we cry out "Abba, Father," as Paul writes in today's selection from his Letter to the Romans.

If the Holy Spirit prompts us all-no matter what race, language, or nationality-to call upon God as our Father, then indeed the Spirit invites us to see others who are baptized as our brothers and sisters. So on this great feast, think of all who are brother and sister to us because they too are baptized in Christ and call on God as Father: the Iraqi refugee in Jordan who fled from his church; the Dalit (Untouchable) Christian in India who is of the lowest caste; the illegal immigrant Catholic from Mexico; the homeless Christian in Chicago. These, along with us, and many others, call upon one Father in the Holy Spirit.

Stewardship - May 23rd - Pentecost Sunday

Today is the Church's birthday. When you go to a birthday party, you usually bring a gift. We come to Mass each Sunday not just to get something but to give; to give ourselves in praise and thanksgiving; and to give back to God a generous portion of our financial blessings, in gratitude for having received them. Gratitude is what motivates the Christian Steward. Thank you for your generosity.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA is a gradual process of education and formation. Whether baptized in another Christian denomination or not baptized at all, the RCIA program helps adults grow in their relationship with God. Classes focus both on the teachings and practises of the Catholic faith as well as the value and application of faith in our daily lives. The process of becoming a Catholic is a four step journey. This journey will take you through the various phases of discerning your call to become a Catholic and the living of that faith. A sponsor accompanies each person desiring to become a Catholic. Your sponsor offers support and guidance throughout the RCIA process and is encouraged to attend the weekly classes. If you are interested in more information, please fill out the form below and give it to the Parish office. You will be contacted for an interview, classes will begin in September.
