Lectors

Group 5 will read next weekend, July 18, 2010.
Group lists are available in the Sacristy.

In today's Gospel, Jesus sends his disciples out to announce the kingdom of God. This was not a move for political power (though some saw it that way) or even for earthly success. It was not even so much a rebellion against the past as a fulfillment of promises made by God long ago. "The kingdom of God is at hand for you," the disciples proclaimed.

The message of Jesus has lasted far longer than nations or kingdoms. Christ is not allied with any government or political faction. God's kingdom exists apart from any political boundaries or human limitations. As Christians, we recognize our responsibility to seek justice and peace. Our calling is to promote the common good, even at the expense of our own self-interest. While we celebrate independence, we also understand that liberty does not mean unfettered license to do what we please. The kingdom of God is not so much a place of individual right as one of communal responsibility. And as citizens of that kingdom we submit ourselves to the law of love for God and for our neighbor.

SLOW ME DOWN, LORD

Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind. Steady my hurried pace. Give me, amidst the day's confusion, the calmness of everlasting hills.

Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of singing streams that live in my memory.

Help me to know the magical, restoring power of sleep. Teach me the art of taking "minute vacations"... slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me of the fable of the hare and the tortoise; that the race is not always to the swift; that there is more to life than measuring its speed.

Let me look up at the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew slowly and well. Inspire me to send my own roots down deep into the soil of life's endearing values ... that I might grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.

Slow me down, Lord

Stewardship for July 04th (14th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Virtues of the Disciple & Christian Steward - Prayer

Prayer is absolutely essential if we are to enjoy the fullness of life that Jesus promises us. Spending time in prayer each and every day is a conscious choice, and a question of prioritizing our time. Do you know that the average Canadian spends 2 hours a day watching TV, the equivalent of one full month a year in front of the television! There's always enough time to pray.

SUMMER DONATIONS

The summer months are a time when all parishes experience a decline in weekly donations. It is understandable that we all want to get away and enjoy our time in the sunshine; but please remember that our expenses do not take a "holiday" and we count on your contributions to see us through July and August. If you are going to be away, think about using post-dated cheques, going on PAR, or making up your regular contributions upon your return. Thank you!!
