Remembered on the Tree of Life

"Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks."

Luke 12:35-36

Lectors

Group 4 will read next weekend, Aug 15, 2010.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Boy Scouts of America are celebrating their hundredth anniversary this year. After Robert Baden-Powell founded the scouting movement in England with the first encampment at Brownsea Island in 1907, it quickly grew in the British Empire and then spread to many other countries in just a few years. The Scout motto, "Be prepared," has been translated into nearly every national language, so widespread is the movement.

Jesus and his disciples were not a scout troop as they made their way through Galilee and Judea on the way to Jerusalem. But his words in the Gospel echo the Scout motto. Vigilance is not a virtue we often think about as a Christian. Jesus expects his followers to be watching for his return, which will come at an hour we do not expect.

Unlike the Boy Scouts and their proactive motto, the insurance industry views preparedness in a more passive manner. A person gets insurance to be prepared for something that may happen. A scout is prepared mentally and physically for what will happen. A Christian must be prepared spiritually for the challenges of life. Those challenges range from the temptation to sin to the opportunity to do good. And that's how Christians are like the insurance industry and the Boy Scouts. We know that the temptation to sin may happen. Our insurance to ward off those temptations is prayer and a well-formed conscience. Doing good is also part of the preparedness of Christian living. Looking for ways that we can be of service—in other words, being proactive in our preparedness—means that we are becoming the vigilant servant that Jesus describes in the Gospel. So look around. There are plenty of needs in this world. To be prepared for the return of the Son of Man means we are ready to act upon his teaching through our love of God and neighbor.

Dear Parishioners of the Cathedral.

From my heart I thank all of you for your generosity and good wishes which you extended to me last weekend. All of you are so beautiful and I will add you to the many who have become "the fabric of my life."

To my office staff and all the parish organizations and committees I thank you for your help and dedication to this community of faith; to the religious education teachers, the coordinator, the parents and all the children, Youth Leaders and young people, I thank you and encourage you to keep growing in your faith and love for God and St. Mary's Cathedral. I have been privileged to spend six years of my life and ministry with you.

The beautiful song by Twyla Paris, "How Beautiful" based on Paul's letter to the Romans (10:15) calls all of us, as disciples to live and love as members of the Body of Christ. When I think of you I will pray, "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things."

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA is a gradual process of education and formation. Whether baptized in another Christian denomination or not baptized at all, the RCIA program helps adults grow in their relationship with God. Classes focus both on the teachings and practises of the Catholic faith as well as the value and application of faith in our daily lives. The process of becoming a Catholic is a four step journey. This journey will take you through the various phases of discerning your call to become a Catholic and the living of that faith. A sponsor accompanies each person desiring to become a Catholic. Your sponsor offers support and guidance throughout the RCIA process and is encouraged to attend the weekly classes. If you are interested in more information, please fill out the form below and give it to the Parish office. You will be contacted for an interview, classes will begin in September.
